

Amy and Fritz No. 3

This year we again headed south to Amy and Fritz's, exit 99 off I-5, for the 3rd annual family gathering. The 2025 participants were- Amy and Fritz of course, with Emma and John; Marcia and Claire; Larcy came on Saturday with her beautiful new emerald green Lexus with all the bells and whistles; Barbara and Gregg; Bob and Carol, Adrienne; Rachael, Ian, Kinsley and Peter. Had a great barbecue burger dinner outside while Fritz kept us entertained with his Tree Trimming skills. We celebrated Rachael's 41st birthday at dinner on the 28th of June.

Saturday, fruit and pancakes for breakfast. We head out to McClain Park and walked some of the trail around a large beaver pond. Peter was sleeping so I waited with him in the car. We did wake up and also wanted to hike, so we hit the trail. Went from the hike over to the Olympia Saturday Public Market which was lot's of fun. Beautiful day, good food and a great market. We had tacos for dinner- I think. Larry showed her slides of a 21 day trip to Croatia, Peter and Ian drove the real tractor, a captured frog escape and a restful night- accept that the bathroom door was locked.

We left fairly early Sunday morning to make it back for Salia's 1st birthday party. All and All a fun weekend with family.
